In order to maintain current reading levels, and to practice skills from previous years, it is recommended that students read throughout the summer. Since much of the English 4 curriculum centers around British and world literature, reading some of the following texts would be beneficial.

The Fifth Child by Doris Lessing
Frankenstein by Mary Shelley
Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte
The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini
Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen
Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe
Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte
